

No High Prices ON FLOUR

With the prices of many food products soaring to unusual heights, it should be remembered that the most important of all foods, wheat Flour, is still very cheap and decidedly economical.

Biggest Food Value for Your Money In STOTT FLOUR

There is no waste to Stott Flour. Every particle of it makes clean, pure and nourishing food. It is milled from the very choicest grades of wheat and is of the very highest quality in every respect. With Stott Flour the most healthful and easily digested foods are made. Breads, Biscuits, Popovers, Pies, Puddings, Cookies and Cakes, are the finest that can be made, when Stott Flour is used, because of its high and always dependable quality. The housewife who makes full use of these, and the many other appetizing foods of which flour is the chief ingredient, will not only be but little burdened with the high cost of living, but will provide most delicious, substantial and wholesome meals as well. Try this plan for results.

DAVID STOTT, Miller
DETROIT, MICH.

FOR SALE BY HENRY F. ESTABROOKS.

At Barnet.

Mrs. Bertha Lang of Fairlee is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Robinson.

Russell Laurie of St. Johnsbury was home over Sunday.

Roy Potter who has spent the winter with his sister, Mrs. Fulford at Waterford is home for a visit.

Robina Laughlin is home for a few days vacation.

W. S. Brock and wife invited Stevens Post, also the McIndoes G. A. R. and the W. R. C. to a meeting and banquet at the I. O. O. F. Hall, Saturday, March 12. About 60 were present and 38 old soldiers. Eight ladies joined the W. R. C., Mrs. Mattie Farrow and Mrs. Alice Somers of South Peabach, Mrs. Agnes Milligan of Peabach, Mrs. Ella Johnson and Mrs. Mary Gillilan, Mrs. Phoebe Gabley and Mrs. Charlotte Dow of this place and Miss Lilla Douse. The dinner was a decided success. Rev. Mr. Barnard of McIndoes, also Mr. Lyons of McIndoes, spoke very interestingly.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase spent Saturday at St. Johnsbury and Sunday with friends at Lyndonville.

Miss Price of Wisconsin addressed the Ladies' Missionary Society and gave an informal talk at the parsonage, Wednesday evening to the ladies of the parish. Refreshments were served at the close.

Mrs. Susan Gillilan who has been spending the winter with friends here and at McIndoes, left Thursday for Everett, Mass. She goes from there to Pawtucket, R.I.

Milo Kinney and wife from Peabach are staying for the present with his brother, Fred.

Mrs. Jennie Brock visited at St. Johnsbury Wednesday.

The Drama, "Neighbor Jackwood," which has been played twice before, had great success was repeated again last Friday night and the hall was filled. Laughlin's Orchestra furnished music and Henry Wallace of East Barnet gave them some funny songs between the acts. From first to last it was a first class entertainment. The proceeds this time were $46.00 for the V. I. S.

Mrs. Lattie Stafford and daughter Dorris of Orleans spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Sam Stoddard last week.

Mrs. Goehoe, E. O. Wilson and Margaret Smith were in St. Johnsbury Saturday.

Mrs. Jeffers of Lyndon spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Chase.

Mrs. L. E. Gillilan and Miss Moulton spent Wednesday with friends at Inwood.

Miss Lilly Douse of Peabach is visiting her brother, Phiney.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bailey of Peabach were the guests of Mrs. Charlotte Dow Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Darling are spending a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Gabley.

Mrs. Ella Johnson and Mrs. Mary Gillilan spent Friday in Woodville.

Miss Buswell of Newbury is visiting at Warren Chapman's.

Mrs. Annie Gillilan is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Pocock at Beebe Plain.

Miss Elsie Goehoe is spending a few days with Louise Moore at East Barnet.

Mrs. Nettie Kendall was in St. Johnsbury Wednesday.

Among those on the sick list this week are: Mrs. Grace Barker, Brock Rollins, Mrs. Gabley and little Laura Dow.

Mrs. Kennedy and little grandson of Lyndon are spending the week at Rev. William Clark's.

Miss Nettie Lang attended the wedding of Miss Mary Potts whose parents were formerly of Barnet, at St. Johnsbury Thursday evening.

1000 Babies ought to have their photos taken at the Clark Studio, 26 Eastern Ave. Headquarters for babies' photos.

Use the American Liver Tablets.

A Night Alarm.

Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the metallic cough of croup. Careful mothers keep Foley's Honey and Tar in the house and give it at the first sign of danger. Foley's Honey and Tar has saved many little lives. No opiates. C. C. Bingham.

RYEGATE.

The closing exercises of the village school occurred on Friday evening. The program consisted of recitations, songs, pantomime and flag drill. The excellence of the performances reflected great credit upon the ability of Miss Ethel Taplin in drilling the children. Miss Taplin will

At Danville.

Local Team Defeats a Hyde Park Aggregation at Basket Ball.—Town News.

Although the L. C. A. of Hyde Park outweighed the Danville high, they lacked the passing and shooting which the Danville had. The Danville high put the game on ice the first period and kept it up through the entire game and it resulted in a score of 25 to 11.

The line up:
D. Smith, rf. Ig. Hubbard
Peck, lf. S. Christy
Ayer, c. S. Brown
L. Smith, lg. H. Page
Fisher, 7c. If. Badger

Goals from floor, Ayer 5, Peck 4, Christy 3, D. Smith 2, Fisher, Page, Brown. Points on fouls, Danville 1, L. C. A. 1. Referee, Bartlett. Scorer, Morrill. Timer, Dr. Fache. Attendance 200.

The rally Thursday evening held in the interest of the Laymen's Missionary movement was largely attended by both churches. After special music by Frank H. Brooks of St. Johnsbury, which was greatly enjoyed, and a brief word from the men who went to Burlington, Messrs. Brooks and Arthur Stone addressed the congregation giving most excellent reports of the recent work and eloquently voicing the object and spirit of what has been called in a recent number of the "Congregationalist" the most important movement in the church since the reformation under Martin Luther.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Dole entertained ten of their friends at tea Friday evening and cards were enjoyed later, and Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Morse gave a party to several of their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gillis visited Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Kingsbury at Montpelier over Sunday.

Mrs. F. B. Stocker and Mrs. F. D. Stocker were the guests of Mrs. Harry Nelson at St. Johnsbury, Saturday.

Miss May Wilson returned Friday from Fitchburg, Winchester, and Boston, Mass., where she has been visiting friends.

Mrs. Martin Dow entertained the members of Mrs. McLean's Sunday school class at her home Friday evening. Delicious refreshments were served and the time was spent most pleasantly with music and games.

Mrs. Mary Eddy has sold her house in the village to Lewis Fisher and possession will be given next month when Mrs. Eddy plans to leave for California, where she will make her home.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Congregational church will meet with Mrs. J. E. Tricker, Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock, March 23. This is the thank offering meeting and the time for the annual meeting and election of officers.

The Victor boys report a good time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Danforth last Saturday evening. They will meet the very next Saturday evening of this week, and the pastor, Rev. A. A. Bennett, and Durant Dole will meet with them for calisthenics and the wand drill.

There will be a meeting of the Grange Tuesday evening, March 22, and the program arranged for the last meeting, but which there was not time for, will be given with the addition of a paper by Mrs. Garvin.

Mrs. Laura Rogers of Greensboro visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Page last week.

Henry Leslie has opened a blacksmith shop in Noah Burdick's old shop on the road to the depot.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church held at the home of Mrs. C. Hatch, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. A. C. McLean; vice presidents, Mrs. C. E. Libbey, Mrs. W. C. Cheever, Mrs. S. N. Ingalls; secretary, Miss Hattie Choate; treasurer, Mrs. Clarence Hatch.

Charles Perkins returned Monday night from Nebraska, where he has been for two years.

James Rollins invites the members of the Methodist Sunday school to a sugar party at the parlors of the church Friday evening of this week.

Mrs. Will Dole, District Dept. O. E. S., grand matron is making official visits on the lodges at Bradford, Wells River, St. Johnsbury and Lyndonville.

Mrs. C. S. Dole visited relatives in Bradford the first of the week.

The Junior Endeavor Sunday afternoon was well attended by the children and a number of the parents. The service by the young people was very interesting and Mr. Bennett gave an excellent talk on truthfulness.

There will be a union service at the Congregational church Thursday evening. It will be held under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. and the State president will deliver the address. All are cordially invited to attend.

The sermons of the Congregational church Sunday mornings are in keeping with the Lenten season. There was a large congregation present last Sunday.

1000 Babies ought to have their photos taken at the Clark Studio, 26 Eastern Ave. Headquarters for babies' photos.

Use the American Throat Tablets.

Would Have Cost Him His Life.

Oscar Bowman, Lebanon, Ky., writes: "I have used Foley's Kidney Remedy and take great pleasure in stating it cured me permanently of kidney disease which certainly would have cost me my life." C. C. Bingham.

Use the American Throat Tablets.

THE Old Family Stand-by

BROWN'S INSTANT RELIEF
Used as directed can be relied on to relieve acute pains of the stomach and bowels. Used in thousands of New England Homes. Prepared by the Norway Medicine Co., Norway, Maine.

An Invitation.

We invite you to try a box of Dr. Sias' Pile Pills. A single dose will relieve all inflammation and give you a restful, perfect ease.

25c a box.

WELCOMB B. EASTMAN, Reliable Pharmacist, 30 and 32 Eastern Ave., St. Johnsbury, Vermont.

A Tickle or Cough,

Hoarseness or Sore Throat, means use The American Throat Tablets.

AT PEACHAM.

Mrs. Robert Craig underwent a very successful operation for gall stones at Brightlook hospital last Monday. She is gaining fast and expects to be able to leave the hospital March 28. Mr. Craig visited her Saturday.

D. W. Moody and Leon Snow returned from Boston Friday.

Wilbur Blodgett of Waterford has bought the Morris Taylor farm. Possession is given at once and he is already moving. Mr. and Mrs. Blodgett are young, newly married people and will be given a cordial welcome to Peacham.

Roy Courten was home from his work at Barnet over Sunday.

Fred Taylor, John Chandler and Lawrence Harvey, who have been lumbering for Roy Bros., at East Barnet have had to give up their jobs on account of the roads and returned home Saturday night.

Mrs. George Stoddard visited Mrs. Lena Barber at Danville, last Friday.

Dr. A. J. Mackay went to Burlington, Wednesday, returning Thursday. He accompanied Miss Ruby Morrison of West Barnet, who has gone to the Mary Fletcher hospital.

Mrs. F. G. Foan and daughter, Beatrice, who have been the past week at Albert Peak's returned to her home at St. Johnsbury, Friday.

Bert Paquin of Hampton, N. H., is calling on old friends in town. He has bought his father's place at East Barnet, but will not move here for the present. He will return to Hampton, Tuesday.

Miss Nellie Powers of East Hill is working at A. L. Peak's.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Kinney expect to go to Whitinsville, Mass., the latter part of this month where Mr. Kinney has work with E. M. Taft.

The last ice of the season was cut at Mud pond last Friday. W. S. Sanborn has cut 1350 cakes of unusually good ice this season.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stevenson, Owen Somers, Robert Craig and Robert Stevenson were at West Barnet, Wednesday to attend the funeral of William Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bradley were at West Danville, Sunday, to visit Mrs. Laura Dana.

Mrs. Anderson and daughter of New York, who have been visiting at Robert Steele's, returned home Wednesday.

Fred Goslant's baby is quite sick. Dr. A. J. Mackay and Dr. Darling held a council, Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid will give a sugar social at the M. E. church, Thursday, March 17, from 5 to 8 o'clock. Sugar and doughnuts will be served and also a full supper to those desiring same.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Exley visited at South Peabach, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hastie were guests at G. W. Esden's, Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Hastie has finished work for Wm. John McLaren. Mr. and Mrs. Hastie expect to work at the Lakeside, West Barnet, the coming season.

Mrs. Wm. Houghton of Cabot visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Needham, last week.

The G. A. R. and W. R. C. meeting at Barnet was attended by a good number from Peacham. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. James Needham, Mr. and Mrs. John Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Esden, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wheeler, Mrs. F. E. Palmer, Mrs. M. Adams, Dan Adams, Mrs. A. J. Mackay. Eight new members were taken in, a bountiful dinner was served and a general good time enjoyed by all present.

Sadie Powers gave a children's party, Tuesday forenoon at her home, for Ruth McLaughlin. The little people enjoyed a pleasant time with games, singing, etc. The treat was pop corn and home-made candy.

Joseph Hunter has gone to Barnet to work a month for Claud Somers.

Mrs. Henry Wallace and two children of Inwood, Miss Edith Peck and Mrs. Walter Peck of Danville and Mrs. Reynolds of Jeffersonville, were guests at E. D. Somers' last week.

The Missionary meeting was attended by about 35. Tea was served and the talk by Miss Florence Price was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Jacob Trussell of East Peabach is in very poor health.

Mrs. Joseph Hunter gave a 6 o'clock dinner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lawrence, Wednesday, March 9, the occasion being her birthday. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Blair and son, Norman, Mr. and Mrs. James Stevenson and daughter, Lou, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and Sidney Gile.

Rev. Fred Williams attended the reception for the new minister at Barnet Center and was one of the speakers.

Miss May McLaughlin is expected from her school at Newport this week.

Blanche Renfrew has returned to her school at Barton.

Mrs. F. E. Palmer is spending two weeks at St. Johnsbury and Danville.

A. R. Taylor of Groton was at Herbert Blair's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Darling visited at B. P. Gabley's at Barnet, last week.

There were three birthday showcases of post cards in town last week. Eliza Renfrew was remembered on her 67th birthday by 60 post cards, 25 letters, a nice ring from a brother and 25 carnations from her children and grandchildren. Leonard Welch and Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Darling took dinner with her Saturday. Blanche Partridge was given a shower of 25 cards and Mrs. Crown at South Peabach received 70, it being her 79th birthday.

Rev. and Mrs. Farman were at St. Johnsbury, Monday.

School at the academy reopens Tuesday, March 15.

Mrs. George McLaughlin expects to start for her home at Gray, Iowa, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hidden who have been at North Hartland have returned home. Mr. Hidden was quite ill while away.

Mrs. Waldron has 15 chickens two weeks old. One hen hatched every egg, and as yet she hasn't lost a chicken.

The teachers engaged for the spring term of school are as follows: Corner, Jay Kinerson; South Peabach, Maude Guthrie; East Hill, Jennie Chapman; East Peabach, Mrs. O. B. Exley; Ewell's Hollow, Lucetta Farrington. North Part and Green Bay have as yet not hired. The schools will open Monday, April 18.

IN BOSTON MARKETS

Butter—Northern creamery, 32¢ 34c; western, 31¢ 33c; jobbing, 1¢ 2¢ higher.

Cheese—York state, 17½¢ 18c. Eggs—Wholesale, fancy henney, 27¢ 28c; eastern extras, 26¢ 27c; western, 24¢ 25c.

Apples—Fancy Baldwins, $3.75 @ 5.50; spys, $3 @ 5; greenings, $2.50 @ 3.50; russets, $2 @ 3.50.

Potatoes—Aroostook and western Maine, $1.05 @ 1.10 bag; sweets, Vineland, 50¢ 75¢ basket.

Truck—Onions, native, 90¢ @ $1.15 box; turnips, yellow, $1.50 @ 2 barrel; white, 65¢ 75¢ box; white Cape, $2 @ 3 bag; squash, marrow, $1.75 @ 2 barrel; turban, $1.75 @ 2 barrel; Hubbard, $35 @ 40 ton; cabbage, drumhead, $1.50 @ 2 barrel; parsley, $1.50 @ 1.75 box; beets, 60¢ 75¢ box; carrots, 60¢ 75¢ box; parsnips, 60¢ 75¢ box; radishes, $1.50 @ 1.75 box; okra, 52.50 @ 3 crate; Brussels sprouts, 15¢ 18¢ quart; lettuce, 50¢ 75¢ box; mint, 50¢ 75¢ dozen; cress, 50¢ 60¢ dozen; chloory, 50¢ @ $1 dozen; leeks, 60¢ 75¢ dozen.

Fresh beef—Extra sides, 10½¢ 10½¢; heavy hinds, 11½¢ 12c; heavy fores, 9¢ 9½¢.

Lamb and veal—Spring lamb, 14¢ 15c; winter lamb, 12¢ 13c; yearlings, 11¢ 12c; mutton, 9¢ 12c; veals, 13¢ 15c.

Poultry—Western turkeys, 25¢ 27c; native broilers, 25¢ 30c; northern fowl, 20c; western broilers, 20¢ 23c; western chickens, 18¢ 20c; western fowl, 19¢ 20c.

Mrs. Anna Ordway has moved back into her house at Peacham.

Edward Moore has gone to North Thetford to work for the present.

Extensive repairs are to be made on the school house at Ewell's Hollow, before the opening of the spring term.

The farmers would like some good fair to tell them when sugaring is to begin. Some have already tapped with no great results, others are undecided.

Mrs. F. B. Allen and son, Frank, were at St. Johnsbury, Friday.

Mrs. A. J. Mackay was at West Barnet, Wednesday, to attend the funeral of little Marita Carter.

C. F. Thresher and C. Wesley Thresher were at Groton, Saturday, to get their oxen shod. C. F. Thresher brought home the large yoke of oxen he recently purchased.

[Rev. from another Correspondent.]

C. H. Merrill from St. Johnsbury occupied the pulpit in the Congregational church Sunday, Rev. Thomas Carlson, who was expected, was unable to be present as he had to officiate at a funeral in his parish. It is expected that he will be here before Friday this week.

Mrs. Eliza Renfrew who has been on the sick list for several weeks is perhaps a little better. Her birthday being Sunday she received Saturday a shower of post cards and a few family friends were invited to dinner.

Miss Blanche Renfrew returned to her school at Barton Monday after two weeks vacation.

Miss Bunker who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bunker has returned to her home at Barnet, N. H.

The Ladies' Missionary meeting held Friday afternoon was very well attended and Miss Price, the Field Secretary, gave a very interesting report of the pledged work and the needs. Supper was served later to about 35.

Miss Ellen Kenerson has been spending the past week at St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Laura Palmer is spending this week at St. Johnsbury and Danville.

A large delegation of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. attended the meeting of the Post at Barnet, Saturday.

George Darling has been ill for some time and Saturday several members of the Modern Woodmen turned out and hauled a lot of logs into the mill for him.

1000 Babies ought to have their photos taken at the Clark Studio, 26 Eastern Ave. Headquarters for babies' photos.

Use the American Throat Tablets.

Green Mountain Club.

Under the name of the "Green Mountain club" an organization has been formed which will undertake to promote interest in mountain climbing in this State. Many of the most prominent men in Vermont are interested and the initial operations of the club are well provided for by a gift of $100 from M. E. Wheeler, a business man of Rutland. Beside a regular set of officers a board of counselors was appointed. It is a member from each county in the State, which will make future plans for the operations of the club and stimulate growth and interest by counties. The club begins with a membership of about 25. A constitution was adopted. The officers of the club are: President, J. P. Taylor of Saxtons River; vice-president, Judge Seneca Haseltin of Burlington; secretary, E. L. Ingalls of Hartford; treasurer, C. W. Brownell of Burlington.

Mr. Taylor was instrumental in founding the club and is one of its most enthusiastic supporters. The board of counselors is as follows: Chittenden county, John E. Allen of Westford; Addison, Superintendent A. W. Eddy of Bristol; Bennington, E. C. Orvis of Manchester; Caledonia, the Rev. J. P. Schneider of Danville; Essex, P. H. Dale of Island Pond; Franklin, Superintendent G. S. Wright of St. Albans; Grand Isle, N. W. Fisk of Isle La Motte; Lamoille, H. G. Thomas of Stowe; Orange, C. H. Morrill of Randolph; Orleans, Gov. G. H. Prouty of Newport; Rutland, A. Granger of Rutland; Washington, C. C. Graves of Waterbury; Windham, the Rev. A. P. Pratt of Bellows Falls; Windsor, F. H. Clark of Windsor.

Use the American Liver Tablets.

NOTICE TO LISTERS.

To the listers of the various towns in Caledonia County: The advisability of a consultation of the listers of the county has been suggested. They are therefore invited to meet at the Town Clerk's office in St. Johnsbury, Saturday, March 19, at 1 o'clock P. M., for a general consultation upon important matters.

ST. JOHNSBURY BOARD OF LISTERS.

St. Johnsbury, Vt., March 8, 1910.

Farmers' Exchange

Advertisements of any kind of farm property, help wanted by farmers, farms for sale or to rent inserted in this column for one cent a word (count all articles and groups of figures as a word), for the first insertion and one-half cent for each subsequent insertion. Any advertisement will be run six times for three cents a word. No credit allowed for these advertisements as the amounts are too small to be booked. Always mention the CALEDONIAN in answering an advertisement.

For SALE. One nearly new No. 6, U. S. Cream Separator. Inquire of J. E. Heath, 1 Spring St.

Farmers and friends who wish to help a crippled fellow can do so by dropping in a few Swiss Brown votes for Arky K. Wheeler, Lower Waterford.

Man wanted on farm, good milker and good man with team. A. F. Lawrence, St. Johnsbury.

House 1½ miles from Fairbanks shops, to sell or rent. A. F. Lawrence, St. Johnsbury.

Farmers desiring the very best life and Endowment Insurance protection obtainable should communicate with Royden W. Cheney, 84½ Main St., St. Johnsbury, assistant manager for the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. This is the oldest company in America and the strongest in the world. Plans cheerfully explained personally anywhere in Vermont. New England telephone.

For SALE. One seven room Cottage with furnishings and bath, at Eagle Point, Lake Memphremagog. Inquire of J. E. Heath, 1 Spring St.

For SALE. Butter paper that is made especially for wrapping butter and can print at short notice the name and residence on same. The CALEDONIAN Company.

Eggs FOR HATCHING. Rhode Island Reds, Brown Leghorns, White Wyandottes, Pearl Guineas, Pekin Ducks. Send for catalog. M. B. Lyster, St. Johnsbury.

Man and wife would like work by April 1 by the month. Floyd W. Mayo, Enosburg Falls, Vt.

For SALE. 25 swarms bees and lot supplies. Copper pan 2x2 and brick arch top, good cheap for boiling sugar or cider, $3.10 inches and 110 ft. 4 to 6 inch being. Mrs. H. D. Davis, South Newbury, Vt.

For SALE. My farm situated in Danville containing 180 acres; also about 250 thousand feet of soft wood lumber, and good sugar orchard. Will sell or exchange for property in this village. Inquire of J. E. Heath, 1 Spring St.

Activity in Bradford.

Baxter Brothers of Brunswick, Me., are erect a canning factory in Bradford. At the height of the business, 125 hands will be employed for about six weeks,